HALL of the Hall Liquor liciy told of my experience with company departed this morning for them. A severe accident was the San Diego, where he will bask under cause of my kidney trouble. I had intense pains through my back and hips and if I attempted to stoop or lift, the trouble became worse. My kidneys were out of order and the kidney secretions passed so fre quently as to cause me much annoyance. I tried most every remdy that came to my attention in an ffort to get relief, but I steadily grew worse until I commenced taking Doan's Kidney Pills. The contents of three boxes restored me to better health than I had known for years and I am now practically free from kidney trouble."
